

I support the ARRL petition because it presents a balanced approach to regulating amateur licencing that is consistent with international agreements.